

Prehistory: Colour the following

Ħaġar Qim in Malta is one of the oldest Stone Age sites in the world. The first music in the world came from the human voice and body in the form of clapping, stamping, shrieking, hissing and humming.

